

Boulder Laboratory for 3-D Electron Microscopy of Cells
Application for use of the Facility

The Boulder Laboratory for 3-D Electron Microscopy of Cells is supported by the National Center for Research Resources, NIH, to develop technologies for specimen preparation and image analysis that will enhance the study of cell structure in three dimensions.

Our laboratory is available to outside users for independent or collaborative projects. If you are interested in such work, please fill out and submit this form. Completed applications and supplementary materials may be sent to:
